"YOU MAY BREAK—SHATTER

The Vase if You Will, But the Scent of the Roses," etc.

Saturday evening about 7 o'clock, as the usual big crowd which collects to see the trains come in was sauntering about and waiting at the depot, two fellows who had just "enough" on to feel very exquisitely for each other that spoony affection which only the "ardent" can arouse, were lolling in each other's arms along the pavement, the crowd heard a sudden hollow, ominous pop, and the next moment a quart of tangle-leg flowed serenely away, while its receptacle lay on the cruel granatoid, spattered to a thousand smithereens. A very loud odor floated on the atmosphere, which one gentleman, who was accused of having a very finely-discriminative olfactory nerve produced by acute familiarity, pronounced as the product of the Stokes apple. Still, another fellow took the opposite ground and swore that he smelt the nigger who plowed the corn.

At any rate, the disgruntled owners of the lost juice walked away very sheepish-looking, followed by the jeers and laughs of the crowd.

And the dispensary had closed!

AS TO COOKS.

It is Said that Many Who Have Left Want Money to Get Back Home.

Mention has been made in these columns that a number of cooks and servants have been employed by an agency located in this city, to go to Philadelphia, New York and other northern cities. They have been engaged under promise of good wages, much better than they ordinarily get here at home. They get the places promised, but if reports are true many of them are dissatisfied after they get there, and want to come back home.

The Telegram is informed today that a number of those who recently left have written letters to friends here asking for money to defray their expenses back home. Dissatisfaction is said to arise from various sources. In some instances the work is too heavy, in others the cooks are taken "on trial" and after a few days they are informed that they will have to work at a reduced price. Such are the reports given out by colored people. At any rate it would be well for all who contemplate going to think well over the experiences of others and go slow in the matter.

A NARROW ESCAPE

From Being Crushed Beneath Car Wheels at Lewis Street Crossing.

Today about 1 o'clock a gentleman and lady, whose names the reporter failed to learn, were driving along Lewis street near the railroad track, and attempted to cross just as a freight train was about to pass. Parties who saw the dangerous predicament the couple were in called to them to stop, but it was too late and they were forced to cross the track quickly or get killed. The woman, frightened at the dangerous situation, leaped from the buggy, was caught in the wheels and dragged across the track. Her action retarded the speed of the vehicle, and but for the timely appearance of Chief of Police Scott and another gentleman, who caught her and pulled her from almost beneath the wheels of the fast approaching train, she would undoubtedly have been ground to pieces.

The parties were evidently from the country, as none of those who saw the narrow escape knew them. Beyond being terribly frightened the woman was almost unhurt. The man escaped without a scratch.

Heed the sign—"Look out for the locomotive."

MORPHINE, NOT CALOMEL.

A Fatal Mistake by Mr. C. R. Doggett, of Brown Summit.

By a dreadful mistake Mr. C. R. Doggett, a prominent citizen of Brown Summit, this county, Saturday night administered a big dose of morphine, instead of calomel, to his three-year-old child. The little one died a few minutes after the dose was swallowed. Mr. and Mrs. Doggett are heart-broken over the dreadful affair. The little one was bright and promising and its death has cast a lingering shadow over their home. A large circle of loving friends mourn with them. The child was buried at Brown Summit yesterday afternoon.

A SENSATIONAL DISCOVERY

Made at the Court Martial of Dreyfus.

CERTAIN DOCUMENTS EXTRACTED

From the Secret Dossier—The Prosecution Plays a Trump Card. One American Killed.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Rennes, September 4—The sensational discovery was made this morning that certain documents have been abstracted from the secret dossier. This dramatic disclosure caused intense excitement, and a stormy scene occurred between Gonse, Jouust and Labori.

A SENSATION.

Rennes, September 4—The prosecution played a trump card and created a sensation. Eugene Cernuschi, a former lieutenant of the Austrian army, affirmed that he was a descendant of the Servian royal dynasty, and came to France for political refuge in June, 1894, and met at Geneva a military attache of a foreign power who told him he received treasonable information from Dreyfus.

ONE AMERICAN KILLED.

Manila, Sept. 4—Five men of Col. Bell's regiment yesterday encountered a Filipino outpost near Paroc. One American was killed and another wounded. The remainder drove the insurgents from their position.

UNION SERVICES

At the Grace Methodist Protestant Church Yesterday.

The congregations of Westminster Presbyterian and Grace Methodist Protestant churches greatly enjoyed the union services held in the latter church, both morning and evening on yesterday. In the morning Rev. Chas E. Hodgin preached to a large and attentive congregation concerning the uses of affliction. He presented the comforting teachings of the Scriptures in a most clear and satisfactory manner, showing the use which God makes of this means of good in developing and strengthening the characters of His children.

The evening service was well attended, and a very helpful sermon by Rev. T. M. Johnson made a solemn impression. The text was from II Chronicles 7: 14. "If my people which are called by my name shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin and will heal their land." The preacher said the office of prayer was for one to humble one's self before God and get in a submissive attitude towards the will of God that the blessing might not only be given but received; that our prayers are vain and foolish when sin is regarded in our hearts.

Back From Cuba.

Henry Boyles, who has been serving in the army hospital corps in Cuba, has returned home to stay. Mr. Boyles enlisted about a year ago in the volunteer army and a few days ago secured his discharge.

He is looking well, but is by no means in love with Cuba. Though the United States authorities have brought about a radical change for the better during the past year, he says that Cuba, or that part of it where he was employed, is yet in bad condition, and he was glad to get away. Some of the Cubans, he says, are mean and filthy and steal everything upon which they can lay their hands.

Mr. Boyles says all the Greensboro boys whom he has seen in Cuba are hale and hearty.

Buggy.

Greensboro is buggy. Since the first of the present month swarms of little black insects have begun to circle around electric street lamps at night, and people having a light in front of their residences have been forced to occupy their back porches. The little insects in question delight to crawl under cuffs and collars, creating an unpleasant sensation for the unfortunate wearer, and the ladies just cannot bear them.

Members of Greensboro Lodge No. 80, K. of P., are requested to meet in their castle hall tonight at 7:30 o'clock. Work in second and third degrees. A full attendance is desired. All visiting Pythians cordially invited.

HEARTRENDING NEWS.

Met the Father on the Way to the Bedside of His Boy.

Several days ago a young man from the north, aged about 25 years, was hurt by a flying belt while working in a mill at Elkin. It was not thought at first that his injuries would prove fatal. His father was, however, notified of the accident and started south for Elkin. In the meantime a change for the worse took place in the condition of the young man, resulting in his death. A committee was appointed by the lodge of Knights of Pythias to accompany the remains to the home of the deceased. Soon after the train from Elkin reached here on Saturday night with the remains and escort, the train from the north arrived bringing on it the father of the young man, who had heard nothing of the death of his son. His first question on seeing one of the party from Elkin was "How is my boy?" The answer "We have him with us" told the story to the grief stricken parent who divined at once the meaning of the answer. The party left on 38 for New York.

THE JEWISH NEW YEAR.

Begins at Six O'clock This Afternoon —Observed in Greensboro.

There is such a comparatively small number of orthodox Hebrews in Greensboro that the Jewish New Year has not been very forcibly impressed on our people. Nevertheless, the day is observed in fitting manner by some of the Jewish people here. The New Year, 5660, begins tonight at 6 o'clock and ends at 6 tomorrow night.

In observance thereof the stores of D. Bendheim & Sons and S. J. Kaufmann will be closed during that period.

LABOR DAY AT WASHINGTON

The Various Offices of the Government Closed Today

THE G. A. R. ENCAMPMENT

At Philadelphia Expected to be One of the Most Important Conventions Held for Years.

Special to the TELEGRAM.

Washington, Sept. 4—The first Monday in September being dedicated by common consent throughout the country as a holiday to labor, the day was celebrated at the national capitol. In the District of Columbia, the day is not a legal holiday, although it is now generally recognized as such. It was necessary, however, for the heads of the various executive departments to issue orders closing the departments. This was done, however, and when the various offices of the Government closed Saturday afternoon, it was with the understanding that they were not to be reopened for business until Tuesday morning. The national banks close on labor day, the same as on other holidays, and this example was generally followed by the leading merchants of the city, most of them closing their doors at noon, in order to permit their employes to get a little recreation.

The day at the national capitol is being quietly observed, very little disorder being apparent. Most of the laboring classes of the city are enjoying the day by going on picnics or excursions down the river, or in the country. The railroads offered a greatly reduced rate of fare to places near Washington, the tickets being good to return Tuesday.

President McKinley is spending the day at the White House. There have been about the usual number of callers at the executive mansion and the president will transact business as usual. This afternoon a cabinet meeting will be held, the first since the departure of the president several weeks ago for Lake Champlain. The meeting is without any special significance, and is merely for the purpose to enable the cabinet to lay before the president certain routine matters which have been held for his attention.

The Grand Army veterans of Washington are manifesting much interest in the annual encampment at Philadelphia. The special train bearing the defenders of the Union leaves over the Pennsylvania and Baltimore & Ohio roads this morning. President McKinley and party will not leave the city until this evening about six o'clock. It is estimated that about fifteen hundred old soldiers and their friends will leave the national capital for the encampment.

The Grand Army men have looked forward to the Philadelphia encampment for several months, and they say that it will be one of the most important conventions held since the organization of the society. Among matters which it is expected will come up for discussion is the conduct of the Pension Office by Commissioner Evans. For some time there has been much dissatisfaction among Grand Army men on account of the manner in which the affairs of the pension office have been conducted, it being claimed that large numbers of soldiers and their dependents are deprived of pensions to which it is alleged they are entitled, by the constructions of the laws made by the commissioner. The Grand Army men of the district are divided upon the subject, some upholding the course of the commissioner, while others are condemning his administration of the office. A prominent Grand Army man, who will attend the encampment stated Sunday morning that in his opinion the encampment would, after a discussion of the charges, refuse to take any action of a condemnatory nature against the administration of pension office affairs. He said, however, that the question would be likely to lead to much discussion during the encampment.

Senator Daniel and Senator Martin were both in the city the other day. Both of the senators regard the re-election of the senior senator from Virginia as absolutely certain. It is said that so far there are 77 for him, and only 14 in opposition, and of the latter about one-half are doubtful. It is said by Virginia people that it is certain that the majority of the Legislature will be for Senator Martin.

Assistant Secretary of the Treasury F. A. Vanderlip has written a letter to the collector of customs at Corpus Christi, Texas, ruling that free goods cannot be shipped in transit under bond, but must be entered for consumption at port of entry, accompanied by a duly certified invoice, or a bond given for the production thereof, as required by act of June 10th, 1890.

Among North Carolina people in Washington are Mrs. L. H. Stanton, of Winston; M. H. Fowlkis and wife; Mrs. P. Coleman; D. H. Coleman; W. O. Price, of Greensboro, F. H. Briggs, of Raleigh; J. F. Ward, W. M. Stuart, R. E. Gibson.

SPECIAL EDUCATIONAL SERMON

At the High Point M. E. Church—A Crowded House.

Correspondence Telegram.

High Point, Sept. 4—There were no service at the M. P. and Presbyterian churches Sunday morning, owing to a special educational sermon by Prof. George H. Crowell, superintendent of High Point graded schools, at the M. E. church. A crowded house greeted the speaker who chose for his text the 10th chapter 10th verse of John: "I am come that they might have it more abundant." From the time the professor began until he had finished the audience was held spell bound by his masterful production. The beautiful comparisons he drew and the great truths he expounded were very forcibly received. Undoubtedly it was one of the best sermons ever delivered before a High Point congregation.

The following is a complete synopsis of his sermon:

Men saw through a glass darkly before Jesus came and developments in all lines were slow—no light of life upon which to build. Jesus came and by his childhood, manhood, crucifixion and death, brought life and light; sufficient information to meet every question. We may have that life; in it we find the higest type of manhood—physically, mentally, morally and spiritually. We may have that life more abundantly; it unchains us from the prison of darkness, and gives us a home incorruptible, undefiled and that fadeth not away. Jesus is all in all. How perfect and beautiful his life.

Inferences, firstly—Christ is the light of the world and that Christ manhood method of development is the only true one, and teaching is not valid, except it be based upon the immortal principles exhibited in his life. Secondly, all teachers should be Christian men and women, as their influence endures, and as armies, educational awakenings reforms Christian civilization can come only through the proper training of the children.

Thirdly, the Bible should be read in the schools, because it is truth, and that the children in their young period of life may build their lives and characters upon it, even Christ Jesus. The blessed old book contains everything. The purest morals, the sublimest truths, the loftiest aspirations, the richest literature and the grandest history.

Application—Our schools stand for these principles herein expounded, which explains its marvelous success. Any school or teaching must be likewise if it hopes for permanency.

HIGHWAY ROBBERY.

One of the Perpetrators Captured After Three Hour's Chase.

A deaf and dumb man named Mitchell, an employe in Proximity Mills, was held up by two negroes Saturday night and after being brutally choked and bruised was robbed of $4 50, the amount carried in his pockets. The robbers fled leaving him helpless in the road where he remained for some time.

Mr. Mitchell came to town yesterday and had a warrant issued for the negroes and placed the warrants in the hands of Constable Dave Scott. The officer was soon on the track of one of the robbers whose name is Wall, and three hours later after chasing him into the country captured him. Wall ran for three hours keeping out of sight most of the time, but Mr. Scott was horseback and finally chased the negro into a long railway cut. After a run of about an hundred yards the officer fired his pistol and the exhausted negro threw up his hands and stopped. He was handcuffed and marched back to jail. The other negro is still at large.

Dr. Scott Coming.

Dr. Chas. L. Scott, of Mebane, is in the city today. He has decided to locate here, and has rented an office in the new building of the Southern Loan & Trust Company, on East Market street. He is a son of Maj. Jno. W. Scott, of Sanford, one of the most prominent citizens of that section, and who is in a large measure responsible for the rapid strides being made there along progressive industrial lines. Dr. Scott, while yet young in the profession and in years, is a man of large capacity, is spoken of in high terms where he has been practicing, and will make his mark in Greensboro. The Telegram welcomes him.

"This air is very familiar" remarked the musician as the wind took off his hat.

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident, of which Mr. John Oliver, of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows; "I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides; no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised trying Electric Bitters: and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents per bottle at C. E. Holton's drug store.

THE STAR OF DREYFUS SHINES BRIGHTER.

The world has long been convinced that Captain Dreyfus is a perfectly innocent man And that galaxy of unscrupulous military functionaries, in whose hands his fate tremblingly rests, hold the same conviction. But, owing to a most flagrant malice which they feel for the Jew, and a most disgusting jealously they have of him for his enviable position in the army, before they will admit his innocence, testimony must be laid before the court martial of such absolute, irresistible character that to return a verdict contrary to it would be to precipitate an interference from the people.

According to late dispatches from Rennes such testimony as that above mentioned was submitted on last Saturday—evidence which the press correspondent thinks so plain and convincing as to exclude the possibility that the judges, with all their deep-ground ill will against the prisoner, will dare to render a verdict of anything less than not guilty.

The friends of the accused are buoyed with the almost certainty that the prisoner's innocence will be established and that he will stand before the world once more a free and exonorated man, while the plots and intrigues of his enemies will be bared in all their malignity.

But if enlightened France allow this poor, persecuted man to be again returned to the tortures of his dungeon, the Christian world will shrink from her, and few will regret if a revolution be waked that will shake the very foundations of the republic.

Gay New York is pluming herself for a swell time when Dewey comes. The celebration will eclipse anything ever yet seen in the great city. The water and land parades will be of splendid gorgeousness, and the hero of Manila bay and his peerless seamen will realize in a small measure the immensely good feeling the populace have for them.

We see from the cablegrams that the Americans have taken another stronghold of the Filipinos. Before sitting down we would suggest that if the Americans were to take a stronger hold on the aforesaid Filipinos it would decrease expenses and help considerable in other ways.

DEPARTMENT OF MUSIC.

BY J. W. TILLINGHAST.

[All communications intended for this department should be sent to J. W. Tillinghast, 415 Eugene street. All notices for publication should be handed in not later than 9 o'clock Monday.]

I am very anxious to make a success of this department, not only because in common with other people I hate to fail in anything I undertake, but because I really believe that it can be made useful to the musical element and interests of Greensboro, and I ask the assistance of all earnest musicians.

I desire to call attention to all movements in local musical matters that have an interest for the people at large and will appreciate the courtesy of those who will trouble themselves to inform me of such movements. I have not time to devote to newsgathering and must depend on those who are immediately interested.

I will be glad to publish expressions of opinion from people who really have something to say in the interest of the general musical welfare of Greensboro.

In glancing over an old copy of the North Carolina Journal of Education (Oct. '98) I find a strong appeal from Chas. J. Brockmann for music in the public schools. This is a subject upon which it is difficult to say too much. The growing recognition of music as a necessary part of an educated person's equipment makes the matter of free music in the public schools of much importance. I mean, of course, vocal music—singing from notes.

Learning to sing (regardless of one's voice quality) is the most important part of musical training because, more than any otherwork, it develops the ability to think music.

Piano study is of course desirable for those who have the leisure and money to pursue it, but all cannot be players, and the ability to listen intelligently to music is more readily acquired by singing from scores than by playing on any instrument (the violin, possibly, excepted).

Then, too, by learning to sing, a child's musical perceptions are so strengthened that any subsequent musical work attempted will be more successfully accomplished.

In all countries or communities that are very musical the condition can be traced to singing—either in school as part of the regular course of education or in choral societies, or more generally in both.

Boston is considered the most musical of American cities and this is due in large part to the work done there seventy years ago by Dr. Lowell Mason. He, with the assistance of the Boston Academy of Music—a society of his own founding—managed to get music introduced as a regular part of the free school system.

That the most musical of American cities was also the first to introduce music into its public schools is significant.

Today many of the piano teachers begin their season's work. Let us hope that it isn't a "blue Monday" for any of them.

The Greensboro Female College begins its musical department on Wednesday.

The Tillinghast School of Music opens Monday, 11th of September. Miss Mildred Tillinghast, who will assist her brother in his music school, is expected on Friday.

Last year's school census gives Greensboro 1,600 school children. 1,440 of these (90 per cent.) could learn to "sing by note." How many are learning?

There are nearly 500 white families in Greensboro that have children in the public schools. If they all decided that singing should be taught as part of the regular course how long would we have to wait for its introduction?

A Wonderful Cure of Diarrhoea.

A prominent Virginia editor had almost given up, but was brought back to perfect health by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea remedy. Read his editorial. From the Times, Hillsville, Va.

I suffered with diarrhoea for a long time and thought I was past being cured. I had spent much time and money and suffered so much misery that I had almost decided to give up all hopes of recovery and await the result, but noticing the advertisement of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea remedy and also some testimonials stating how some wonderful cures had been wrought by this remedy, I decided to try it. After taking a few doses I was entirely well of that trouble, and I wish to say further to my readers and fellow-sufferers that I am a hale and hearty man today and feel as well as I ever did in my life.—O. THE ONLY

Big Show

That Will Visit

GREENSBORO THIS YEAR

"After all, Old Things Are Best." The Old Reliable

OLD JOHN ROBINSON SHOW

Which you have known, respected and enjoyed through three generations, will visit you on Wednesday, September 13th.

THAT WILL BE A GALA DAY!

For over three quarters of a century the people of beloved North Carolina and the south have claimed the old John Robinson Show as their favorite. Your grandfathers and grandmothers have sounded its praises, and many of the grown up sons and daughters of famed North Carolina early learned to lisp the name of Old John Robinson with their baby lips and ever since have proved the true North Carolinians, their loyalty to the show of their youth and no other amusement organization ever will or ever has held the place in the hearts of the whole people like the old reliable John Robinson Show and now after a long absence during which time it has assumed ten times the proportions in merit, size and magnificence, it comes to Greensboro One Day, Wednesday, September 13th.

John Robinson's Ten Big Shows

In connection with the Grand Biblical Spectacle, Solomon, his Temple and the Queen of Sheba Without a parallel, acknowledged by a universal public the one distinctly Great Show, the peerless Exhibition of America. Three big circuses, four big rings, three big menageries, one prodigious aquarium, one complete aviary, one grand Biblical spectacle, ten truly great shows, one gigantic museum For seventy five years through three generations this mighty and powerful amusement has exhibited in every state in our vast union and the name of John Robinson is alone a guarantee that the performance under the vast canvas is by far excels all others in merit, originality, magnificence, variety and quality.

THE MENAGERIE

Surpasses in magnitude and completeness the largest known zoological collection in the world. One of the special features of the big triple menagerie is the largest snake alive—25 feet long.

Two Great Special and Exclusive Features Secured at Immense Expenditure.

A school of Sea Lions, the only one on exhibition in America A'so a herd of Pigmy Water Buffaloes, direct from Luzon Island, Manila.

THE CIRCUS FEATURES

This season obtained from Europe and America, will amaze and startle the world. Nothing like them ever before presented in this country. The most novel bareback riding acts ever witnessed. From nine to twelve of the world's greatest champion Lady and Gentleman Equestrians riding in four rings at one time. This feature is new and original with thig show.

MORE FOR THE MONEY

Than any other three circuses furnish their patrons. Larger, costlier, and more distinctly original tableaux, cages and dens than owned by any big show in the world. Most costly costumes, more scenery used in the one great feature of Solomon and the Queen of Sheba than in the entire combined features of any other exhibited in the country. Over $ 00,000 expended in this production alone. 100 of the most beautiful dancing girls in America.

THE GRAND STREET PARADE AND ROBINSON'S HORSE FAIR

An innovation in itself. A truly magnificent pageant. A feature of the free street parade is the grand spectacle of forty of the smallest ponies ever harnessed and driven at one time. Don't fail to see them.

TWO PERFORMANCES DAILY.

Old John Lowlow the Clown,

Will Appear at Each Performance.

"Look out!" cried the captain, as the canal-boat was passing under a low bridge. A Frenchman immediately put his head out of the cabin window to look, and got a severe blow. Rubbing his head ruefully, he cried: "Why do these Yankees call look out when they mean look in?"

Look out for your health means look in. For the secret of health is within you. Germs are in the air you breathe and in the water you drink, but if your blood is pure and your stomach sound the germs can find no permanent lodgement.

To keep the blood and stomach in sound health or to re-establish them in a healthy condition when they are diseased, no medicine is so effective as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It purifies the blood, cleanses the system of waste and poisonous substances, increases the activity of the blood making glands and invigorates the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition.

"I can say honestly and candidly that Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is the grandest medicine ever compounded for purifying the blood," writes Miss Annie Wells, of Fergusson's Wharf, Isle of Wight Co., Va. "I suffered terribly with rheumatism, and pimples on the skin, and swelling in my knees and feet so that I could not walk. I spent about twenty dollars, paying doctors' bills, but received no benefit. A year or two ago I decided to try Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and 'Favorite Prescription,' and am entirely cured."

Now, Please Don't Laugh.

One way to take a dude's part is to muss his hair.

Most young artists do their best drawing on the "old man."

A woman likes to be up-to-date in everything except her age.

No, Maude, dear, the columns in the Avenue of Fame could not be classed as Grand Army posts.

The man who has gained his wealth in politics can truthfully claim that he made all his money out of politics.

Mamma—"See here young man! If you ask another question I'll whip you on the spot" Willie—"What spot?"

He—"If I were to propose what would the outcome be?" She—"I'd have to look up the income before I could tell."

Stranger—"I suppose that Colonel Bloodgood gained his title by distinguished services in the army?" Kentuckian—"No sir, by distinguished services in the Baker-Bloodgood fued, sir."

Hoax—"This banjo was my grandfather's. Its made of over 700 pieces of wood." Joax—"You ought to get quite a number of cords out of it."

Fastboy—"Under arrest! What am I charged with doing?" Constable—"Everybody, and the evidence is conclusive. Come along with me now"

Little Pimples Turn to Cancer.

Cancer often results from an impurity in the blood, inherited from generations back. Few people are entirely free from some taint in the blood, and it is impossible to tell when it will break out in the form of dreaded Cancer. What has appeared to be a mere pimple or scratch has developed into the most malignant Cancer.

"I had a severe Cancer which was at first only a few blotches, that I thought would soon pass away. I was treated by several able physicians, but in spite of their efforts the Cancer spread until my condition became alarming. After many months of treatment and growing steadily worse, I decided to try S. S. S. which was so strongly recommended. The first bottle produced an improvement. I continued the medicine, and in four months the last little scab dropped off. Ten years have elapsed, and not a sign of the disease has returned."
B. F. WILLIAMS,
Gillsburg, Miss.

It is dangerous to experiment with Cancer. The disease is beyond the skill of physicians. S. S. S. is the only cure, because it is the only remedy which goes deep enough to reach Cancer.

S.S.S. For The Blood

Royster's New Office.

Mr. Geo. H. Royster, general agent and organizer Endowment Rank, Knights of Pythias, has opened an office in the new Wright building on North Elm street, opposite court house. The office is well lighted, roomy and well ventilated. Mr. Royster has furnished it in good shape and is well equipped with endowment rank literature. We congratulate him on his splendid location and comfortable and attractive quarters. Greensboro Pythians believe in the Endowment Rank, a fact abundantly evidenced by the large number of them insured in it.

General Wheeler

Taking in the situation around Manila. Now let Uncle Sam relieve Otis and give the old Buttermilk Ranger a half chance and you'll very soon hear the insurgents calling for the calf rope. The name Buttermilk Ranger was given to our cavalry during the 60s. An army to be victorious must have confidence in their leader. Take the record of General Jackson. Why, the soldiers under him knew no such thing as defeat, and to just say that Jackson's in the rear was enough to throw consternation in the camp of the enemy. Confidence is just as important in the commercial world, and the mere mention of the name

HARRY-BELK BROS. CO.

creates a panic in the mercantile arena. We cannot understand how we can always get in the rear of their prices, but this is easily explained. For we have a leader that knows every hog path that leads to the manufacturing plants of this country and keeps posted. In this way you see we only buy from first hands, thereby saving the middleman's profit. Our buyer spends weeks in the market. Take the army of stores—Charlotte, Greensboro, Monroe, and Union, S. C., and you will at once see that it requires tons upon tons of goods to supply them. Buying so largely we take the entire output of a number of factories. In this way we get the inside prices. Our buyer will soon in the manufacturing centres of this union and, like Wheeler in the Philippines, you will hear something drop shortly in old Guilford that will astonish the natives. Before this takes place, and in order to make room, we have made JOB COUNTERS in all departments to clean up many valuable lines at half price. Price is no object. The room is what we want and must have. Be quick.

.....LAND.....
